

Dt. 16-11-19

Disaster management training course ends

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ VARANASI

Under the aegis of Diesel Locomotive Works (DLW) Bharat Scouts and Guides, the 10-day-long regional level disaster management and preparedness training course concluded at the local Community Hall campus here on Friday. On Thursday evening the main attraction of the course the grand camp fire was organised in which the chief guest was General Manager (GM), Diesel Locomotives Works (DLW), Rashmi Goel. Speaking on the occasion, the GM said that DLW Bharat Scouts and Guides has been playing an important role in times of any disaster. The training imparted by experts of various organisations in this special course camp will undoubtedly increase the morale of the members. During the function DIG, National Disaster Response Force (NDRF), Aseem Upadhyaya, and leader of the course Mahendra Sharma also expressed their views and motivated the participants to keep moving forward. On the occasion Ganesh Vandana, game show, Himachali and Haryanavi folk dances, bhangra and some other cultural were presented by the members of the Scouts and Guides from the zonal Railways of northern region and 14 states, including the host DLW. Earlier the grand camp fire was inaugurated by DLW GM Rashmi Goel and other officials along with the camp fire lights. The guests were welcomed by the chief district commissioner and principal chief personnel officer. A large number of officers of DLW and members of Scouts and Guides were present on the occasion. It may be pointed out here that the NDRF, traffic police, Delhi Disaster Management Authority (DDMA), Central Hospital, Civil Defence Organisation, St John's Ambulance Brigade and other organisations have also been trained in this 10-day-long course.